Why, I m surprised to have Isn t she proud? whispered Twenty-one days to et and just you! the hens together; then--I thot at least I d have two. I suppose she d be proud if she hatched just one feather. Bruce Crane, 6A. BETTER SPEECH WEEK. It was my good fortune to attend a class in Vitalized English conducted by Mrs. Gertrude S. Bell at the summer session of the San Diego Normal School. Among other incentives for the promotion of good English, Mrs. Bell spoke enthusiastically of Better Speech Week. The concrete suggestion it offers to Blue Bulletin readers will not be as effective as it would have been if it could have reached them earlier; but as a general suggestion it will certainly carry weight and some of the material may be found useful for another year; for Better Speech Week is intended for future as well as present use. Mrs. Bell states that the National Council of Teachers of English invites all the schools in America, and all other organizations interested in the movement for better speech, to co-operate in a drive for this purpose. November 2 to 8 has been designated Better Speech Week and extensive plans for making this week profitable have been worked out by different organizations which have conducted similar campaigns in the past three years. In 1915 the National Council of Teachers of English appointed a Speech Committee, the Chicago Womans Club, the State Federations of...
