Now they re in Hawaii for a big wedding vow renewal ceremony elaborately planned by Jo s mother. There s just one small issue, something s wrong with the wedding license issued in Africa and only Jo knows that she wasn t legally married in Zambia. Enter her old flame, the man she was running from when she met Jordan. He s on the island and with his two kids, both of whom are named after her. Coming face to face with her past, just as she s trying to brave her future, forces Jo to make some big decisions. It might even force her to grow up. Luckily she doesn t have to do any of it on her own; her two best friends are there to hold her hand and help her down the right path. But what path will she choose? Despite all the upheaval and complications, Jo will eventually walk down the aisle to say I do to the man who completes her. But will the wedding be the one Jo s mother planned? Or will it be something much, much better?.
