D. 1875 That the design of the Founders of this Seminary may be publicly known, and be sacredly regarded by the Directors, Professors and Students, it is judged proper to make the following preliminary statement: A number of Christians, both clergymen and laymen in the cities of New York and Brooklyn, deeply impressed with the claims of the world upon the Church of Christ to furnish a competent supply of well-educated and pious ministers of the Gospel; impressed also with the inadequacy of all existing means for this purpose; and believing that large cities furnish many peculiar facilities and advantages for conducting theological education; having, after several meetings for consultation and prayer, again convened on the 18th of January, A.D.1836, unanimously adopted the following resolution and declarations: 1. Resolved, in humble dependence on the grace of God, to attempt the establishment of a Theological Seminary in the City of New York. 2. In this Institution it is the design of the Founders to furnish the means of a full and thorough education, in a the subjects taught in the best Theological Seminaries in this or other countries. 3. Being fully persuaded that vital godliness, a thorough education, and practical training in the works of benevolence and pastoral labor, are all essential to meet the wants and promote the best interests of the kingdom of Christ, the Founders of this Seminary design that its students, remaining under pastoral influence, and performing the duties of church members in the several churches...
