CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 212 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.5in. In 2009 Robin made his dream come true and moved from Vienna to London. It all happened very quickly, and it took him a while to realise, he actually did what he was hoping to do for about two years. But as the months go by he had to see, that he wasn't living in the city he loved after all. He was working there. The never ending days in his office made him miss the sun and daylight. Until he met this guy David, who set his heart on fire. Robin fell within minutes. And all of a sudden, David was Robin's new sunlight. Who needs Vitamin D? Everything seems alright at first, but things start to change after the first month of their relationship. When we open the book, we find Robin in one of the most depressing times he's ever gone through. A world in ruins, just because of his affection for one boy. This is a book about catching the last raindrops long after the storm is over. Robin believes that anybody can live the life of...
