From marriage to housing, cars to jobs, everything in life must be meticulously scrutinized so that it's perfect for you. This process takes a life time of give and take, trying new options, letting go of the old while embracing the new. In Marty Norman's new book The Write Fit, discover the right fit for you in the writing arena. Learn how to discover your passion, embrace your gifts, channel your interests, write about your expertise, and share your faith through writing. Since understanding the intricacies of writing and publishing can be a daunting task, we must first make a plan. In order to have a finished product one has to start with baby steps. If Plan A doesn't work, we move to Plan B or C, all the way to Z if we want to meet our goals. In addition we must identify our voice, style, genre, target market, and submission process. By getting off dead center, we learn to write with a purpose. Marty takes you from A-Z through the publication maze by using discussion and exercises that run the gamut of how and what to write to picking a genre to understanding the markets. Learn to write with a purpose using your passion, expertise and experience by customizing the write fit for you through the exercises at the end of each chapter. In just 10 easy steps you will move from fledgling writer to author with a purpose.
