Excerpt from First, Second, and Third Annual Reports of the Managing Committee of the American School of Classical Studies at Athens, 1881-84 The building of the School should contain apartments for the Director and his family, and suitable rooms for the meetings, collections, and library. Eventually, when the resources of the School warranted it, there might be in the building rooms for its students. The School would be in charge of a Director of recognized ability and attainments, appointed for such time as the Managing Committee might deem proper. It would be the duty of the Director to superintend the work of the members, and to send yearly to the Managing Committee a full Report of the work accomplished by the School.
