This published book is wonderful. It is really simplified but unexpected situations within the fifty percent of the ebook. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

Excerpt from Sixteenth Annual Report of the Woman s Foreign Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, for 1893-94 The new workers have done good work this year. By their earnestness and persistence in the study Of the language they have been an inspiration to those of us who have been longer on the field. Their cheerful faces and desire. To assist in all ways that were Open to them have given new life to the work. They have given many lessons through the year to the Chinese in an unwritten language. Perhaps one Of the most noticeable features in the history Of our work on the China field is the constant change Of workers. The Soochow District has not been exempt from these varying conditions, and stands now clothed in almost a new vesture. Of the six pioneer workers who have filled the ranks under the Woman s Board in the Soochow District during the last five years, the writer is the only one left to tell the story.
