Whitaker House, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Updated, Revised. Language: English . Brand New Book. There are times when I feel like the title father is the worst name God could have given Himself. What a stupid idea, when father means rejection in my world. And#8212;Excerpt from a troubled teen's letter to Doug StringerBy the late 1980s, God began to give Doug Stringer insight regarding the state of our nation and the daily problems his ministry saw as it reached out to young people struggling with drugs, alcohol, abortion, prostitution, apathy, and other issues. The root and source of all these issues suddenly became clear: America is a nation devoid of fathers, both natural and spiritual. We are an orphaned nation with broken and dysfunctional families, a society of individuals in search of identity. Now, almost thirty years later, we have a double generation of fatherlessnessAnd#8212;orphaned parents raising orphaned children. Even people with good fathers suffer from the widespread effects that fatherlessness has on our culture and our world.Doug illustrates the heart of God and gives the reader a clear path to the affirmation, acceptance, and approval of a father. He draws from his own struggle with fatherlessness and the struggle of others to offer insight into the power of God, including: The answer to the problem of fatherlessness in our nationThe importance of spiritual fathers in the churchHow to be a spiritual fatherHow to find a spiritual fatherGod's heart for reconciliation between generationsThe power that is unleashed with generations work togetherHow to overcome broken trust and learn to trust again. The church is only now awaking to the heart cry of a generation that has been abandoned and left to its own devices. Doug Stringer believes that God is ready to release a multigenerational anointing, calling forth generations...
