

Larceny of the Heart 2: The American Dream

By Maxwell Penn

Paperback. Condition: New. Bashir Henderson (illustrator). 286 pages. After surviving attempts on the lives of him and his family by Jamaica's most ruthless gangsters, Jean Paul Baptiste escapes the horror of his recent past in the Caribbean and migrates to America. In the hopes of making better lives for themselves the Baptiste clan settle in Queens, New York. They quickly discover that the land of milk and honey is at best bitter sweet. As they struggle for daily survival the safety of Jean's family and his children's well-being hang in the balance. They must all fight the magnetic lure of New York City's 1980s underworld and street life. Will Jean be able to maintain his sanity and live to see the American dream? Will Karma and foes from his former life catch up with him? Will he be able to secure a bright future for his family and achieve his goals before his American Dream transforms into a nightmare? This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
