A woman scarred from the past, a killer out for revenge, a Texas Ranger who will protect her or die trying. Lenora Lockhart survived a dangerous killer once, but she was traumatized by the brutal kidnapping and attack. Knowing the man is in prison has given her a chance to start a new life. As a bridal consultant, she helps other women plan the most special day of their lives but she sees no love or marriage in her own future. Then the man who assaulted her escapes from prison and her nightmare begins all over again. Texas Ranger Sergeant Micah Hardin has seen the worst of the worst and one of them is the man who brutalized Lenora. Micah rescued her once, then stood by her side while she put the maniac in prison, but he nearly lost his heart in the process. For Lenora not only stirred his admiration with her bravery, but ignited feelings of passion inside him that made him want to be more to her than just her protector. Now the killer is out for...
