The Howard family moved from San Haydren Caifornia to Bayou Bayside Florida due to the loss of a wife and mother. Michaels wife lost her six year long battle with breast cancer a couple of months ago. His boss Mr. McPheeny thought since Michael and his kids were going through such a rough time that it would be in their best interest to move to a new state, start over make a new life for themselves and get some normalcy back in their lives, besides he has a new country club down south that he needs someone to run for him to and so Michaels his best bet. Hes hoping that the move proves to be helpful and be the best thing for them all. Michael knows that this move is going to be hard on his kids. Hes not to worried about his young son Noah because Noah is a go getter, out going person who works through everything quickly and efficiently. But his daughter D. J on the other hand is a whole other story, shes a loner...
