Roving Eye Press, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Originally published in 1929, Bob Brown s 1450-1950 is a collection of hand-written, optical poems. This parodic set of scratches extends and challenges the legacy Gutenberg s standardized type set and blurs the boundaries between scribbles, art, and literature. In this new edition, scholar and Brown biographer Craig Saper offers a new introduction to the work with several new contributions from artists, poets, and critics paying homage to Brown s impact on the Beat movement, LANGUAGE poetry, and the field of digital modernism.
