B-282078 The problem of inadequate documentation of the Services real estate Need to Improve Inadequate acquisition decisions is not a new issue. In 1989, we reviewed the Services Documentation Previously real estate acquisition process. At that time, we reviewed a sample of 246 Identified sites purchased during fiscal year 1987 and made recommendations to 4 improve the Services real estate acquisition program. Our 1989 report found that the Service usually purchased sites that exceeded both its operational needs and advertised size requirements. When alternative sites were available for purchase, the Service generally selected the larger, more costly sites without requiring site selection committees to document why less expensive alternative sites were less desirable. The report raised concerns, based on the Services requirements for advertising and purchasing practices, that the Service might be spending more than was necessary for land and accumulating an unnecessarily large real estate inventory. The report also recognized that..
